

county legislator that they interrupted to the extent they in a prejudiced verdict of his apples, if he holds members had no chance to excellence of the flavor les shown in the senate.

to the fact that an over-majority of the house are novices in legislative e that body is still self- and rather diffident.

happy circumstance that house has such able men Nemaha; Jenison, Clay; Buffalo; Fults, Furnas, anus, allotted to the rail- alternate section of land line within a 10-mile zone line. A supplemental act ouble this subsidy and ad company claimed that of the right of way was ed or increased to 400 feet.

Osterman, in explanation he company sold the lands it held title, making the way boundry 100 feet dis- the main line track. On nment land it set the back 200 feet on either e want the passage of a n will define the right-of- s to make it uniform all line, and make it 100 feet side of the track as it county. Goldsberry was convicted of hav- ing received stolen property with guilty knowledge and was one of the first men in the state to have been successfully prosecuted under the conspiracy act provided for in the present statutes.

It is this same statute that Berka, of Douglas county, seeks to have made effective in its application to auto stealing in order that automo- bile thieves can be more successfully prosecuted. Applied to horse steal- ing it broke up the last big organized gang that ever operated in the states of Kansas, Missouri and Ne- braska.

Bigamist Breaks Parole; Sentenced to Penitentiary

West Point, Neb., Jan. 18.—(Spe- cial.)—Max Tiedtke, who pleaded guilty to bigamy last March and was given a conditional parole by Judge Welch has broken the conditions under which he was paroled. He was taken in custody by Sheriff Sexton and on Thursday morning sentenced by Judge Welch to from one to seven years in the peniten- tiary at Lincoln.

Douglas County to Get Big Share of School Funds

Lincoln, Jan. 18.—(Special Tele- gram.) Douglas county will receive of which is to train ea- latest and most app- of agriculture and s

Cable Censorsh

New York, Jan. 18. merical Cable comp- toady that censorship ed from social and sages on the Com- system.

RUB ON SP PAINS, SW

Don't Suffer. R- the moment you "St. Jacobs Li

Don't stay crippled soothing, penetrating into the sprain, ache out comes pain, sore and swelling.

Nothing else pen- and strengthens the- cles, nerves, tendons so promptly. It do- discolor the skin and injury. Don't suffer- trial bottle from any- —limber up! Rub th