

Dies in Norfolk Early Thursday

Funeral Service Conducted
For Mrs. Susan Caauwe
Saturday Afternoon.

Mrs. Susan Caauwe, resident of Wayne county for many years, passed away Thursday morning at 4:10 at the home of her daughter in Norfolk after a few days' illness. Funeral rites were conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Norfolk Home for Funerals with Dr. Ray H. Turner officiating. Burial was in the Pilger cemetery beside her husband and infant daughter.

Susan Katharine Carson, daughter of Edwin and Sena Carson, was born March 27, 1873, in Allegheny county, North Carolina, but lived most of her early life in Virginia. The family moved to Pierce county in 1883 and to Stanton county in the fall of 1888. There she was united in marriage to Peter Caauwe July 26, 1897. To this union were born seven children, Lee of Wayne, Sena, now Mrs. Roy Roberts of Wayne, Edwin of Wayne, Rufus of Blue Island, Ill., Frank of Norfolk, Fern, who died in infancy, and Barbara, now Mrs. Wilson Wenke of Norfolk.

After leaving Stanton county in 1918, the family made their home in Wayne county until 1935 when Mr. and Mrs. Caauwe moved to Norfolk, where they resided on North First street.

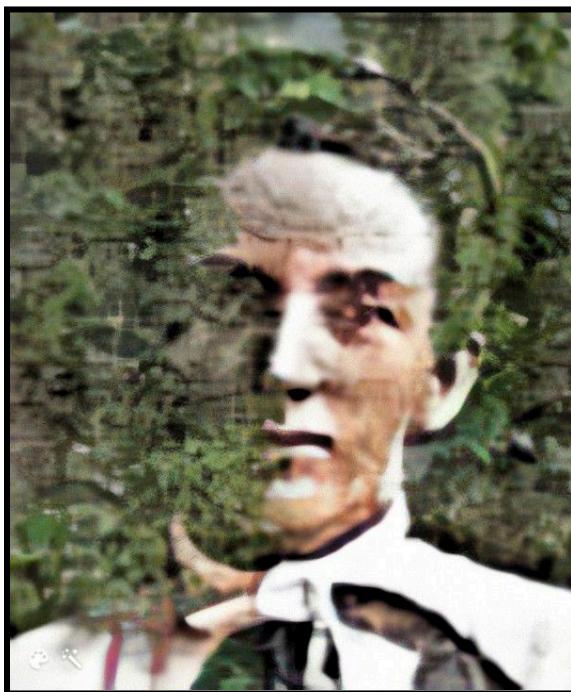

Since the death of Mrs. Caauwe's husband last March, she had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Wenke.

Deceased leaves her children, 11 grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Royia Layton of Pilger; two brothers, Thomas Carson of Hot Springs, Ark., and John Carson of California, besides many other relatives and a host of friends.

Mrs. Caauwe was a member of the Baptist church.

Pallbearers were Everett Roberts and Ernest Spahr of Wayne, Daly Carson and George Kennedy of Pilger, and Wm. Wilson and Arthur Thiel of Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Caauwe and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Caauwe, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Roberts and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Spahr and Ernest, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spahr, Everett Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Eijung, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baker attended the services from Wayne.
